

ALL MONTH

Kanopy and OverDrive
Displays on the first floor.
Access Black History Month
movies and books curated by the staff of the LWLC from the device of your choice!
<https://libalasu.overdrive.com/>
<https://www.kanopy.com/en/alasu/>

FOUNDERS' WEEK BOOK TALK: THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 2

11 a.m.
LWLC Lecture Hall

Historian and Archivist Joseph Caver's talk about his book From Marion to Montgomery: the Early Years of Alabama State University. Event cosponsored by the LWLC, the National Center for the Study of Civil Rights and African American Culture, and the Harper Council Trenholm Branch of ASALH.

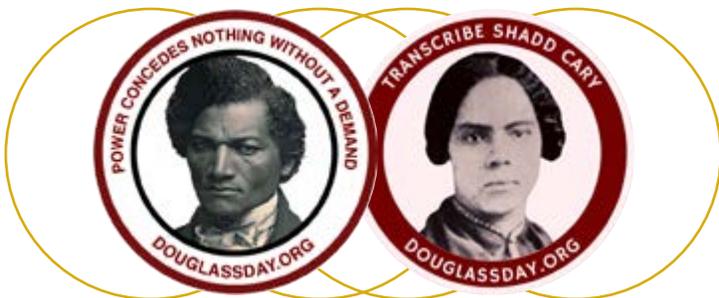

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 8

10 a.m.
Room 570
Demonstration by Montgomery
County Archivist Dallas Hanbury
of The Lantern Project database of the legal records of enslaved persons.
<https://scholarsjunction.msstate.edu/lantern/>

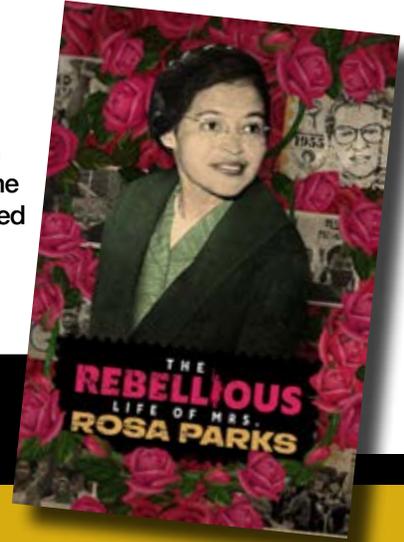

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 14

2 p.m.
LWLC Lecture Hall
TRANSCRIBE-A-THON! Celebrate Douglass Day (Frederick Douglass' chosen birthday) by transcribing the papers of Mary Ann Shadd Cary. Bring your laptop!

BLACK HISTORY MONTH FILM FESTIVAL:

Each weekday of February 13 through 24, watch movies exploring the "Black Resistance" theme on the 5th floor movie wall. Don't miss the LWLC staff picks! Cosponsored by the National Center for the Study of Civil Rights and African American Culture.

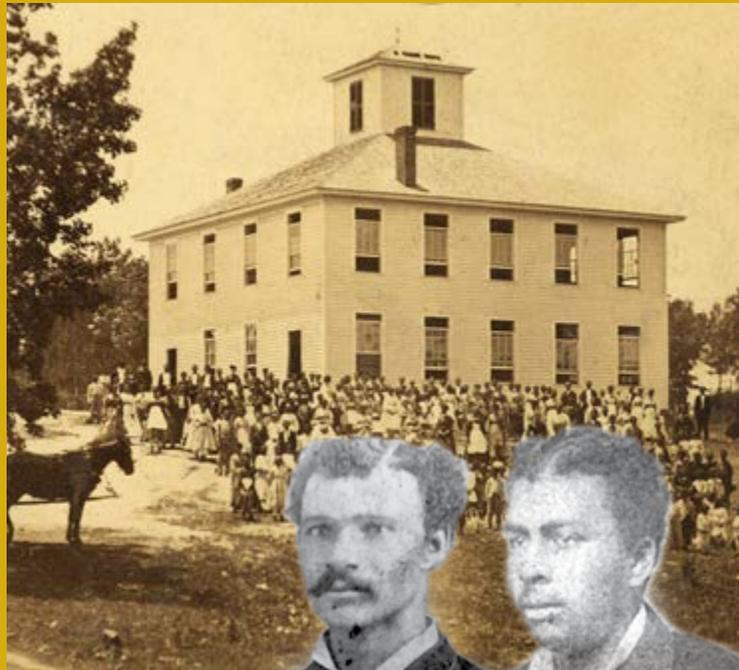

ALL MONTH

Special Exhibit:

Scenes from the Lincoln Normal School

on loan from the University of Alabama's Special Collections.

L to R: Marion Nine
Members James Child,
David Harris

LEARN ABOUT OUR EVOLUTION FROM LINCOLN NORMAL SCHOOL TO ALABAMA STATE UNIVERSITY